THE EXECUTIVES

Private Members Association — For International Members

Antiques. Live Experiences. Homes & Land. Delivered Worldwide.

CORRECTED CLARIFICATION — PLEASE READ

We do NOT find, source, or locate antiques for members. We do NOT offer a personal shopper service to find items. What we provide is ACCESS to live auctions in real-time — members watch, bid, and buy live, from anywhere in the world. That is all for antiques.

WHO WE ARE

The Executives is a private members association for international members who want curated access — not endless browsing. We bring together the marketplace, live auctions in real-time, chef-led live experiences, designer pieces, and homes & land from around the world, in one trusted place, with tracked, insured delivery and a named client manager.

We serve members in the UK, Europe, North America, the Middle East, Asia-Pacific, Africa and beyond. Everything is in English, priced clearly, and supported in your time zone.

HOW MEMBERSHIP WORKS — IN 3 STEPS

1. Choose your tier. One-time membership. No monthly fees. No hidden charges.
2. Browse, join live auctions, join live streams. Browse the marketplace, join live auctions in real-time to watch, bid and buy live, or join chef and designer live streams.
3. Tracked, insured delivery. Every order gets a TRK+ tracking code. Kikibot follows your delivery from dispatch to door.

TRUST, AUTHENTICATION & PROTECTION — WHY MEMBERS TRUST US

- Live Auction Access: Members get access to live auctions in real-time. You see the item live, hear the auctioneer, and place your bid live. We provide the access — you decide what to buy.
- Authentication: Listings are presented as described by the auction / seller. Where a certificate of authenticity is provided with a lot, it is shown in the listing. Members should review condition, provenance and terms shown live before bidding.
- Land verification: Homes & land listings include location, acreage, title status and what is — and is not — included. We do not list what we cannot verify.
- Secure checkout: Payment is held securely until dispatch is confirmed. Checkout requires only your name, shipping address and email. SSL-secured.
- Insured, tracked delivery: Every order is insured and tracked with TRK+. You receive updates at every stage. If an item arrives damaged or not as described, we resolve it.
- Returns & fairness: Clear returns window for items not as described, and a 14-day cooling-off period for UK distance sales where applicable. International members receive the same written policy before purchase.
- Privacy & data: Your details are used only to fulfil your order and membership. No sale of personal data. GDPR-compliant handling for UK/EU members, and equivalent privacy standards worldwide.
- Human support: A named private client manager, not just a bot. 24/7 member support via support@executives.org.uk.
- Live transparency: Live auctions and live streams are real-time. You see the item, ask questions live, and bid / buy with full visibility.
